plies for canal construction in foreign markets on the score of getting goods cheap than they can be furnished by American manufacturers caused a sensation among high tariff congressmen; Secretary Taft subsequently decided to charter two foreign ships for the use of the commission, but will not purchase great quantities of supplies until Congress meets, Secretary Morton intimated his desire to resign as Secretary of the Navy July 1. Minister Herbert W. Bowen arrived in Washington and As-sistant Secretary of State Loomis submitted a statement to the President in answer to the charges preferred by the former against him. Attorney General Moody de-cided that the eight-hour law applies to the Panama canal zone. The Moro outlaws against whom Gen. Leonard Wood conducted a campaign were subdued, the American loss being nine killed and twenty-one wounded, the constabulary also losing two men. The interstate commerce commission rendered a decision fixing the differentials to be allowed by the railroads to Atlantic ports on goods intended for export. A petition for a rehearing of the Philippine tariff cases recently decided was filed by the government in the United States Supreme Court. The general assembly of the South ern Presbyterian Church met at Fort Worth, Tex., the general assembly of the Northern Presbyterian Church at Winona Lake, Ind., and the general assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church at Fresno America was organized at St. Louis, uniting the conventions of the north and south. The annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers began at Atlanta, Ga. The Philadelphia common council passed the seventy-five-year gas grab, but Mayor Weaver announced that he would yeto the ordinance. Indications were, at last reports, that the Chicago teamsters' strike was approaching a speedy settlement. Jo-hann Hoch, several times a bigamist and alleged murderer, was found guilty in Chicago of the murder of Mrs. Marie Welcker-Hoch. Among those who died were Hiram Cronk, the last surviving veteran of the war of 1812, at the age of 165 years, at Ava, N. Y., and Kirke La Shelle, a well-known playwright and theatrical manager, at Belleport, L. I.

Foreign Affairs.

The American commercial agent at Vladivostok sent a message to the Washington State Department stating that the Russian authorities had requested all foreign commercial agents to leave the fortress; dispatches from various oriental ports report the Russian fleet off the coast of Anam: Admiral Birileff was appointed to take command of the Russian military and naval forces at Vladivostok, superseding Admiral Rojestvensky should he arrive there; dispatches from Manchuria stated that heavy rains had made the roads impassable and prevented military operations there, but the Japanese were reported to be in readiness to assume the offensive as soon as the highways dry out; the British steamer and sank with twenty-eight persons; May and but few minor disturbances; Governor General Sokolovsky of Ufa province was probably fatally shot in a public square at Ufa; Vice Admiral Nazetoff was shot and killed by an orderly at St. Petersburg; a Warsaw workman either threw or fell with a bomb, which exploded, killing him and of the money market. Banking interests two detectives who pursued him; the time limit of residence of Jewish merchants in the larger Russian cities, it was stated, would be removed. The French chamber of deputies sustained the government by postponing indefinitely interpellation upon the neutrality question; the French deputy for Indo-China urged greater defense for that territory because he feared a Japanese invasion. A farewell dinner was given to Gen. Horace Porter, retiring ambassador of the United States to France. The American embassy at Vienna received instructions to make a full report on the case of Marcus Braun. A Coxey army was reported to be organizing to advance upon the Brit-ish parliament. Twenty-five Greeks were killed by Turkish troops near Salonica, European Turkey. The autoboat race was broken up by a storm on the run from Port Mahon to Toulon, two of the vessels being sunk and three abandoned; their crews were

Attorney General Moody announced that ex-Senator Louis E. McComas will shortly be named as an associate justice of the Court of Appeals, to succeed Justice Martin F. Morris, who has signified his intention to resign. Gen. H. V. Boynton resigned as president of the board of education, and was succeeded by Mr. J. NAMED FOR SHILOH HERO.

Albert Sidney Johnston Chapter, D. of C., Organized. The members of the local branch of the Daughters of the Confederacy organized a new chapter in the District last night. It will be known as the Albert Sydney Johnston Chapter and starts out with the following officers: President, Miss Mary Desha, who is one of the two living founders of the Daughters of the American Revolution; first vice president, Mrs. Ralph Walsh; second vice president, Mrs. H. P. Gerald; recording secretary, Miss Agnes Gerald; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. Mill Sapp; treasurer, Miss M. Selden; registrar, Mrs. H. F. Johnson, and historian, Mrs. Gibbons.

Miss Rosa Tuckers was elected an honorary member and Mrs. Jennie Monroe an associate member. The meeting was held at the residence of Mrs. Ralph Walsh, 824 H street northwest. After the meeting light refreshments were served. One of the objects of the new organization is to found a scholarship in some southern in-dustrial school for the benefit of worthy southern children. The next meeting of the chapter will be held June 3 at the residence of Mrs. Walsh.
